Become a Patron or Friend of St Mary's Singers....

Your support will enable us to continue

- to sing services at Truro Cathedral when the Cathedral Choir is on holiday
- to offer an annual liturgical performance of a Bach Passion
- our innovative schemes to introduce young people to classical music and the Anglican choral tradition, both as members of the choir and working with local schools to put on concerts together
- to put on exciting summer concerts with professional soloists and orchestra
- various other activities, such as our Christmas charity concert for the Home Farm Trust.

As a Friend or Patron of St Mary's Singers, you will

- be the first to know of our concert plans
  - be offered priority booking for the best seats at our Truro concerts
  - receive an annual newsletter
  - have your valuable help acknowledged in our concert programmes.
- As a Patron, you will also have an opportunity to meet the musicians at a reception after our summer concert.

Annual subscriptions may be paid by standing order or cheque; please use the attached form. If you are a UK taxpayer, please also complete the Gift Aid declaration opposite as this gives us more money at no extra cost to you.
